

Eastern Region IFE Branches Conference

'Fire Safety in Airports and Railway Terminals – design, construction and occupation'

Imperial War Museum, Duxford, CB22 4QR

Wednesday 20th June 2018

Considerations for fire safety in the design of airports and railways terminals.

How are fire safety systems maintained whilst operating and construction takes place?

How do you test and manage evacuation whilst maintain operational commitments?

In association with the IFE Transport Special Interest Group.

- IFE International President
- RAF Warrant Officer Staff Assistant Disaster Emergency & Fire Prevention (opening address)
- Senior Fire Safety Officer (Ret) Gatwick International Airport
- Atkins Global (BS 9992 & Railway Infrastructure)
- Business Continuity & Risk Manager at Stansted Airport
- Senior Loss Prevention & Fire Engineer: MFC forensic

Cost – includes entry to the Museum. Food and refreshments will be provided during the Conference.

- IFE Member - £75.00
- Non-IFE Member - £90.00
- Group of 3 or more from same Company - £65.00 P/P

Payment details - via Eventbrite (An Eventbrite booking fee will be added)

Arranged by Eastern Region IFE Branches www.ife.org.uk

THE INSTITUTION OF FIRE ENGINEERS

FOUNDED 1918 • INCORPORATED 1924

